

MEMBERSHIP STATUS

KRU MUAYTHAI ASSOCIATION

- No Sole National Representative
- Subject to certified Kru registered by the KMA only, according to rank.
- KRU registration fee: 30 USD/Yearly
- KMA Club/Gym registration: 100 USD/Yearly
- Each Kru must have their own graded and registered students via the KMA curriculum in order to gain a higher grade.

Permission to use: KMA Logo, Curriculum, Support and advertising on the Kru Muaythai Association Website and Facebook. www.krumuaythai.or.th

WORLD MUAY BORAN FEDERATION

- Only one position of WMBF Representative per Country
- National WMBF Representative member fee: 200usd/yearly
- Permission to use the WMBF logo and organize courses and activities in their country, plus the right to arrange a National Team of Muay Boran athletes to compete in the annual World championships.
- WMBF Club/gym Membership = 100 usd/Yearly
- Permission to use the WMBF logo as well as club membership certificate and advertisement register on the WMBF website.

WORLD MUAYTHAI ORGANIZATION

Representative/Promoter fee: 300usd/annual

- Only one position of WMO National Representative
- Promoters fee 200usd/yearly
- Fee includes the registration of your details on the website + certificate of authorization from the WMO headquarters.
- License fee is renewable yearly; failure to make payment will result in revocation of your license.
- Promoter/Representative/Club has the right to use Official WMO logo, for any/all advertising in accordance with the rules & regulations, agreements and contracts signed by the relevant International Commissioner's on behalf of the WMO.
- Representative/Promoters only have the authority to organize or stage a fight/gala under WMO Sanctioning; minimum of two promotions per year.

Roles of the WMO Representative

- Each National Representative must send in their details to the WMO in a timely manner with high quality photo attached.
- There shall only be one National representative for each country, this may be represented as a group regarding terms between members; regarding responsibility of communication activities between them and the WMO Headquarters in Thailand.
- Each Representative must arrange a National team to represent their country to compete in the WMO Pro-am and/or WMO professional World Championships at the International and Thai Martial Art Games and Festival in Bangkok, Thailand each year.
- They must maintain good relationships and communication with existing head coaches in their country in order to gather correct information of fighters for local and International competition.
- Each representative must hold or join with an existing promoter to host at least two shows per year in their country in order to develop the skills of local athletes and to scout for athletes to represent their nation in the annual WMO World Championships at Pro-am and professional level.
- It is advised to join with the National WMBF representative to compete in the Amateur Muay Boran categories of the tournament.
- For each show it is acceptable to use the WMO logo with consent of the World Muaythai Organization.
- Information must be sent to the WMO before and after the competition regarding show details and results.
- The WMO will provide support of activities via the WMO Website and social media channels
- All funding of the organization in that country is held responsible to the National representative
- The required sanction fee must be paid to the WMO in full prior to each promotion held by the representative/promoter in that country.

The KMA, WMBF and WMO are under the same figure head - Being a member in one association, does not mean that you are a member of the other and neither eligible to use logos of the other associations with personal intent self promotion, unless the correct membership fees have been covered.